Farmingville, NY - On March 16, Brookhaven Town Supervisor Ed Romaine (center) and Councilman Dan Panico (right), marched in the annual Center Moriches St. Patrick's Day Parade, sponsored by the Moriches Chamber of Commerce. Joining the Supervisor and Councilman were Suffolk County Clerk Judith Pascale (left) New York State Senator Lee Zeldin.

"It was a true honor to be a part of such a great tradition," said Supervisor Romaine, "Events like the Moriches St. Patrick's Day Parade provide great opportunities for our residents to come out and celebrate what is great about our community."

Councilman Panico said "Congratulations to all the participants, the princess and of course Gerry Sapanaro, the Grand Marshall. It's my honor and pleasure to march in this parade every year."

The parade featured floats from local organizations, fire departments, ambulance companies, local school bands, scout troops, antique automobile clubs, and Irish pipe bands.
